

INDIA: 16 Days of Activism Campaign Overview 2011

16 Days of Activism : Theme : Requesting the appear house of the parliament not to bring any changes in pro-woman social legislation, Section 498-A IPC.
November, 30	Addressing All India Mahila Sanskruti Sangh at Bangalore .
December, 3	Presenting a study on Judgments in High Court of Gujarat on Section 498-A IPC in a specially convened workshop, participated in by lawyers, activists, researchers and students of law.
December, 10	Joint meeting of WILPF-India and Gujarat Andolan WILPF-India on 'Repeal AFSPA and Release Sharmila'
November 25 to December 10	WILPFers spread over Gujarat are requested to hold meetings on 'retaining Section 498-A IPC as it is' in their towns/campuses. Reports will be received only after Dec. 10, 2011.

December, 9, 2011	IV Patel College of Commerce, Nadiad. Workshop on Way to Global Peace: End Violence against Women, chaired by Dr. Ila Pathak.
-------------------	---

Two colleges could not hold their meetings on the theme of 'End Violence against Women' during the 16 days. So they held their meetings on 12th December, 2012.

December 12, 2011	Dabhoi College : End Violence against Women
December 12, 2011	Idar College : End Violence against Women

