Resolution 2326 (2016)

Adopted by the Security Council at its 7838th meeting, on 15 December 2016

The Security Council,

Determining that the situation in South Sudan continues to constitute a threat to international peace and security,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Decides to extend the mandate of the United Nations Mission in the Republic of South Sudan (UNMISS), as set out in resolution 2252 (2015), and as further set out in resolution 2304 (2016), until 16 December 2016, and further decides that UNMISS shall continue to include a Regional Protection Force (RPF) with the mandate set forth in resolution 2304 (2016);

2. Authorizes UNMISS, including the RPF, to use all necessary means to carry out its tasks;

3. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
