130 campaigners meet in Geneva to ban nuclear weapons

Ahead of the open-ended working group on nuclear disarmament (OEWG) meeting at the United Nations in Geneva over the next two weeks, the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) has brought together 130 campaigners to discuss campaign strategy, examine the legal gap and what provisions and elements a new treaty needs to contain, and campaigning methods.

Check out the draft agenda of the campaigners meeting and follow along on Twitter with @nuclearban and #goodbyenukes. Also check out the ICAN Facebook page!
