Eleven Women Facing War

Canadian War Museum

An exhibition of photographs by Nick Danziger for the International Committee of the Red Cross, presented by the Canadian War Museum.

Eleven Women Facing War tells eleven stories of women from Afghanistan, Sierra Leone, Colombia, the Balkans, Israel and the Palestinian territories. Internationally renowned photographer Nick Danziger initially photographed these women in conflict zones for an International Committee of the Red Cross study in 2001. Ten years later, he set out to find each one to learn what had become of their lives
