

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, 28-30 October 2015, WILPF in collaboration with the Global Network of Women Peacebuilders (GNWP), Baha'i International Community, International Peace Bureau, United Methodist Women, the National Council of Negro Women, World Council of Churches, Peace Boat US, World Federation of Methodist and Uniting Church Women, APWAPS, Cordaid, Global Movement for the Culture of Peace, and Urgent Action Fund for Women's Human Rights held a Peace Forum at the Church Center of the United Nations. The Peace Forum created space to engage men and go beyond anniversaries in implementing the Women, Peace and Security Agenda.

WILPF Supported the following events around the Peace Forum:

- Strategic Re-engagements: Advancing Women, Peace and Security and Beyond (WILPF-US) Thursday October 29 | 12:00-1:30PM | Church Centre: 8th Floor Boss Room
- People's Action Plans: Empowering Civil Society to Implement 1325 Thursday October 29 | 3:00-4:30PM | Church Centre: 2nd Floor
- Transforming Violent Masculinities to Move the Women, Peace and Security Agenda Forward Friday October 30 | 10:00AM-11:30AM | Church Centre: 8th Floor Boss Room
- Informal conversation with Christine Bell Friday October 30 | 1:30-2:30PM | Church Centre: 7th Floor (NGO WG on WPS office) (*in the margins of the Peace Forum*)