

Rwanda (2010; 2009-2012; 31 pgs.)

The Rwandan NAP includes a background section outlining the basic institutional and legal framework of Rwanda, including details on the social welfare system of the country. It even identifies good practices such as adopting a National Gender Policy to illustrate the positive strides the country has taken prior to adoption of a NAP. Moreover, it highlights six key challenges, of which the lack of a UNSCR 1325 NAP is one. The Rwanda NAP is the only NAP to include a chronogram illustrating a specific timeline for implementation. It also includes one of the most specific budget estimates, which is specified by sub-activity and year.
