

WILPF AND THE PERMANENT MISSION OF THE NETHERLANDS PRESENT

WOMEN IN CONFLICT - A CLOSE LOOK AT SYRIA

SIDE EVENT:

TUESDAY 11TH JUNE
FROM 12:00 TO 14:00
ROOM XXI

What are the major gendered consequences of the civil war, and what are the immediate priorities of women inside Syria and in refugee settings that will prevent further gendered violence?

How can women's political participation be strengthened inside Syria and in the refugee settings in the neighbouring countries of Lebanon and Jordan?

What measures should immediately be put in place to ensure that women participate in defining peace and security in the long term?

Meet our participants and hear their experiences and recommendations for the international community.

Moderator: MADELEINE REES, Secretary General, WILPF
